

MaCCS DCT questions

No.	Question	Responses
1	What is the name of the model of care you are describing?	Free text
2	When did your service start offering this model of care?	dd/mm/yyyy
3	Is the model of care predominantly targeted at a specific section of women who share a common characteristic or set of characteristics?	Yes/No
4	Please select the specific group/s of women that this model of care targets. (May select more than one).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander identification Migrant or refugee Low risk or normal pregnancy All excluding high risk pregnancy Complex or high risk pregnancy Breech presentation of fetus Multi fetal pregnancy Next birth after caesarean section Planned homebirth Maternal diabetes and other endocrine disorders Maternal obesity or high body mass index (BMI) Maternal age—young Maternal mental health condition Other specific cultural groups not already specified Other social groups not already specified Other vulnerable groups not already specified Other maternity target groups
5	What is the profession of the designated maternity carer in this model of care?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Specialist obstetrician—public Specialist obstetrician—private General practitioner obstetrician Midwife—public Midwife—private Midwife—privately practising General practitioner Maternal-fetal medicine subspecialist Aboriginal maternal infant care practitioner

No.	Question	Responses
6	Select the profession/s of other recognised and named collaborative maternity carers with a planned role in this model of care.	Shared care Multidisciplinary team Other Specialist obstetrician—public Specialist obstetrician—private General practitioner obstetrician Midwife—public Midwife—private Midwife—privately practising General practitioner Maternal-fetal medicine subspecialist Aboriginal health practitioner Aboriginal maternal infant care practitioner Nurse Perinatal mental health worker Other allied health practitioner Medical specialist other than obstetric Public hospital medical officer None Other
7	Is this model of maternity care midwifery caseload?	Yes/No
8	What is the total caseload (number of women) per year for each FTE primary midwife working in the model?	Number
9	What is the extent of continuity of carer provided cross the continuum of care within this model?	Antenatal period only Antenatal and intrapartum periods Antenatal and postpartum periods Intrapartum and postpartum periods Whole duration of maternity period—antenatal, intrapartum and postpartum No continuity of carer
10	Is antenatal and/or postnatal care provided in individual or group sessions?	Individual sessions Group sessions Combination of individual and group sessions

No.	Question	Responses
11	Does the model include a minimum number of planned visits with a medical practitioner?	Yes/No
12	Are women in this model routinely relocated from their community to another location prior to labour for intrapartum care and birth?	Yes/No
13	Please select all the settings where antenatal care visits are offered in this model of care.	Hospital clinic—onsite Hospital clinic—outreach Clinicians' private rooms Community facility Aboriginal community controlled health service facility Home Birth centre—stand alone Birth centre—in hospital Hospital—excluding birth centre Other
14	Please select all of the settings where birth care is offered in this model of care.	Aboriginal community controlled health service facility Home Birth centre—stand alone Birth centre—in hospital Hospital—excluding birth centre Other
15	Does this model of care provide postnatal visits in a residential setting (e.g. home)?	Yes/No
16	How long do women in this model of care receive postnatal visits in a residential setting (e.g. home)?	1-3 days 4-7 days 8-14 days 15-28 days 29-42 days More than 42 days
17	Are additional remote or rural services offered in this model of care?	Yes/No
18	Please select all of the additional remote or rural services offered in this model of care.	Fly-in-fly-out clinicians Community-based remote-area clinicians Telehealth Other

No.	Question	Responses
19	Which Major Model Category does this model belong to?	Private obstetrician (specialist) care Private midwifery care General practitioner obstetrician care Shared care Combined care Public hospital maternity care Public hospital high risk maternity care Team midwifery care Midwifery group practice caseload care Remote area maternity care Private obstetrician and privately practising midwife joint care

Source: MaCCS DCT.